Speaking followed the adoption of the resolutions. Messrs. James B. Tully, Henry Arcularias, McSpedon, Thos. A. Nor could there be division of opinion upon the obligation yasting upon the democracy to rally in this the last struggle for municipal rights. The Redan of black republicanism had failen in November. The Maiakoff was reserved for the crowning victory of December. Rally then, as one man, and present to the world of the Empire State a merited rebuke to treacherous and disaffected democrats, black republicanism familiam and Know Nothing intolerance.
